

Rider Number Allocation Process

(updated 9 January 2017)

The following document outlines the process to apply for a rider number in the 2017 Australian Superbike Championship. In 2017 competitors may register a two-digit or three-digit number.

Please consult the 2017 ASBK Rider Number Allocation document and contact Liz Galazkiewicz with any discrepancies in regards to numbers immediately.

A competitor will need to complete a Rider Number Application if any of the following apply:

- The competitor is new to the Championship;
- The competitor was inactive in 2016;
- The competitor did not compete in two (2) or more stand-alone rounds in the relevant class in 2016;
- The competitor holds an existing number from 2016 but elects to change the number for 2017; or
- The competitor holds an existing number from 2016 but is changing classes

A competitor will not need to fill out a Rider Number Application if they competed in two (2) or more stand alone ASBK rounds in 2016. Their number will automatically carry over to 2017 and can be confirmed via the 2017 ASBK Rider Number Allocation document located on the Motorcycling Australia and ASBK websites.

A competitor who raced in two (2) or more stand alone rounds of the 2016 ASBK Championship in the Production Class will automatically have their allocated number into the newly named Supersport 300 Class.

Any competitor who had a reserved rider number in 2016 and did not compete in two (2) or more rounds of the ASBK Championship has forfeited the number. The competitor will need to re-apply via the Rider Number Application. If the application is submitted after the deadline and another rider has requested the forfeited number, it will be granted.

A competitor may elect to take up a number between 1 and 10 based on his/her 2016 ASBK Championship placing (as per GCR 10.13.1.1), the competitors existing number will be reserved for one (1) year, from which they can return to that number. If a competitor elects to use the number reflecting their Championship standing for two (2) consecutive years, the competitor forfeits the right to the original number.
